Riding Lights Theatre

Roughshod:
Let Loose

An irrepressible new comedy sketch show that bounces over boundaries and hurdles past hindrance.

What are the things that keep us prisoner? What does it mean to be free?

Two cowboy builders get an unexpected lesson about less than firm foundations, a desperate caller finds their life permanently on 'hold' and the true story of what happens when an inspiring family open their home to an ex-con. Riding Lights Roughshod use powerful performance (and a little comic chaos) to raise some intriguing questions about social justice, religious faith and the confines of the modern world.

So, please come and join us for unfettered access to this captivating new production. There really is no escape...

Saturday June 25th

7.30pm in St Andrew's Church

Tickets: Adults £5. Free for 12-19's. Not suitable for under 12's. Tickets available after services

June Message

Free at last!

From its earliest beginnings the Christian faith has presented its attractions in many different ways. One part of this is to claim that, through the coming of Jesus, God's son, human beings can know a profound freedom. As Jesus himself said in John's Gospel 'If the son shall set you free you shall be free indeed'

In the 21st century that may seem a somewhat strange claim to many. At first sight, making a definite commitment to live by the tenets of a particular faith appears to limit a person's future choices. The Christian diagnosis is, however, that living without reference to any creed or set of divine commandments turns out not to be as 'free' an existence as people might imagine. Some even end up trapped or chained in particularly obvious ways by an addiction perhaps to gambling, or food, or alcohol, or sex, or the internet, or drugs, or nicotine, or work.

Over the last 2000 years though Christians have testified to how they've found Jesus' words to be true in their own experience. How, paradoxically they've found a freedom in God's service that they hadn't discovered before.
